

I oppose the proposed changes to Broadcast Ownership. The commission is not fulfilling its obligation to represent the public interest. The commission is operating too much as an extension of the Broadcast industry. The constant acceptance of favors and sponsorship from the industry by the commissioners reflects a blatant conflict of interest, and questionable integrity.